

For over 30 years, The Evaluation Group has been helping organizations across the nation achieve their purpose through grants and evaluation. We are passionate about our purpose of Creating Opportunities to Improve Lives and are guided by our core values of Team Work, Excellence, Integrity, Positivity, Initiative, and Growth.

Our team of highly skilled, socially minded grant strategists and evaluators specialize in planning, implementing, evaluating, and providing technical assistance for education, health, and human service grant programs.

Grant Strategist

a friendly, self-directed grant professional who provides high-quality grant development and management services while cultivating strong partner relationships

- Write, edit, review, and submit grant applications.
- Meet with partners to assess needs and determine project model.
- Conduct research on funding, content, and grant specific areas.
- Infuse grant proposals with evidence-based best practices.
- Provide timely and accurate technical assistance.
- Problem-solve and consult with partners.
- Conduct new grant orientations.
- Develop budget and grant management tools.
- Facilitate grant management meetings.
- Support post-award reporting.
- Lead sustainability planning efforts.
- Contribute to business development.

Location:

Remote Home Office (NC, SC, GA, or TN preferred)

Qualifications:

Master's Degree and at least 5 years of experience

Compensation:

Competitive salary commensurate with experience

Benefits:

Paid medical, dental,
and vision insurance;
401(k) with match;
4 weeks PTO

Is TEG right for you? Email a cover letter, resume, and writing sample to Apply@evaluationgroup.com. State in your cover letter why this position interests you, why we should employ you, salary requirements, compensation history, and contact information. Resumes will be accepted until the position is filled. EOE.